“Boy, are we bored!”

Ever since the destruction of the temple of Zuul, the ghost-related commotion in the Big Apple has died down. Business has been slow for the Ghostbusters. The phone hardly rings and a thick layer of dust covers the office furniture.

“Hey, did you know that we’ve been having a lot of earthquakes lately?”

Frequent earthquakes in New York? Maybe it’s the ghosts! They may be the cause of all the jolts. If so, it means business. And business means MONEY.

Rrring, rrring. Rrring, rrring.

“Help! The g-g-ghosts, they’re here in my house! You’ve got to come now!”

The frenzied clients call in, one after another. The spooks have invaded their homes! It’s time to pick up the weapons and rush to the rescue!

“Oh my, what a mess! We surely have a lot of work to do!”

“They’re all over. And they come in all sizes and shapes. Shoot’em down! Blow’em up!”

“Hey, where does this door lead? Uh oh, we’re in trouble. . .”

“It’s the Boss ghost! This house will never get back to normal as long as the head spook is ‘alive’! There’s no time to waste. Get him, quick!”

“Whew! Boy, that was some tough ghost! Let’s pick up our check and get outta here!”

"Wait up, guys! Look, I found this little rock-like thing. It seems to be a piece of a stone tablet. And there’s an inscription on it. I wonder what it is.”

“We’ll find out, sooner or later.”

And they did. But no one expected the horrifying outcome.

Important Items that You Come Across in the Game

Safe
If you find a safe, break it open with your Normal Shot. If you're lucky, you'll find a money bag. If you're not, you'll find a bomb. Make sure you run away before the bomb explodes.

Money Bag
This is what you find in the safe, if you have busted some ghosts.

Egg
When you wipe out the Green Phantom, it drops an egg. This egg contains either a red drop or a blue drop. The blue drop adds to your Life Gauge and the red drop adds to your Energy Gauge.

Things to Keep in Mind when You're in Action

In addition to the Middle Ghosts and the Boss Ghosts, the buildings are swarming with small ghosts. Use your Normal Shot to get rid of these. You may need to fire several times to destroy certain small ghosts.

Capture the Spectre-Spirit!

When you destroy a Middle Ghost, the Spectre-Spirit appears. Catch the Spectre-Spirit with your Normal Shot. The Normal Shot automatically becomes a laser beam. Use Button B to control the laser beam and pull the Spectre-Spirit right over the box. (The box appears on the screen when the Spectre-Spirit escapes from the body of the Middle ghost.) If you're skilled enough, the box will automatically trap the Spectre-Spirit and you'll gain life and energy. (EASY game – six units in both your Life and Energy Gauges will be filled. NORMAL or HARD game – four units will be filled.) If you're not skilled, the Spectre-Spirit will escape.
Controlling Your Laser Beam

If you lift your finger off Button B, the beam will get longer. Control the length of the laser beam to capture the Spectre-Spirit.

After You've Destroyed All of the Middle Ghosts

If you were skilled enough to wipe out all of the Middle ghosts, you're ready to confront the Boss Ghost. Find out where the Boss Ghost is by looking at your map on the subscreen.

And Finally, When You Liquidate the Boss Ghost...

When you've successfully cleaned out each building, your Life and Energy Gauge will fill up and your client will pay you. Plus, you'll find a piece of a stone tablet. See if you can collect all the pieces to solve the mystery.

Helpful Hints

- Pick your Ghostbuster according to his speed and stamina.
- Buy as many life restoring items as you can.
- The more ghosts you destroy, the more money you make.
- Try to find out the Middle and Boss Ghosts' weak spots. It will make it easier for you to destroy them.
- Check the amount of money you have and where you are on the map, as often as you can.
